Volume 2008, Issue 1

Society of American Law Teachers

March 2008

In This Issue

This issue of the SALT Equalizer contains the 2007–08 SALT salary survey results. Information for Regions III–VII continues on pages 2 and 3.

Survey Information

This survey of 2007–08 academic year law faculty salaries by Aviam Soifer, Dean of the School of Law at the University of Hawai'i, reports the median salaries for the three faculty ranks, in alphabetical order by school, in seven regions. SALT received information from 94 (48%) of the 196 law schools surveyed in the U.S. and Puerto Rico, including five schools that did not respond but whose salary information was located in publicly-available documents. 107 schools (55%) refused or failed to participate in the survey.

Although SALT does not survey schools for information on the salaries of non-tenure-track legal writing faculty, the Association of Legal Writing Directors (ALWD) and the Legal Writing Institute (LWI) jointly sponsor an annual national survey of legal writing programs at approximately 140 law schools. That data can be found on the LWI website at www.lwionline.org/survey/survey-result.asp and on the ALWD website at www.alwd.org/surveys.html.

About SALT

Since 1973, the Society of American Law Teachers (SALT) has been an independent organization of law teachers, law deans, law librarians, and other legal educational professionals working to enhance the quality of legal education, make the legal profession more inclusive, and extend legal representation to under-served individuals and communities. SALT has been at the forefront of national debates about legal education and legal institutions. SALT challenges faculty, staff, and students to promote the profession's core values of equality and justice, and to oppose illegal and inequitable practices. You can learn more about SALT at www.saltlaw.org. Please join us by registering to become a member online or with the membership application included below.
