Contents

Preface vii
Introduction 1

1. Global Protection for Inventions 9
   1.1 The Territorial Limitations of Patent Protection 11
   1.2 A World Patent 15
   1.3 Parallel Patents 18
      1.3.1 Obtaining a Patent Abroad 19
      1.3.2 Obtaining Patents in Multiple Countries 25
   1.4 Obstacles to Global Protection 35

2. Enforcing Parallel Patents 39
   2.1 Private International Law Solutions to the Problem of Enforcement of Parallel Patents 43
      2.1.1 The Brussels Regime 44
      2.1.2 Mitigating the Problems Created by the Brussels Regime 49
      2.1.3 The Hague Convention 58
      2.1.4 The ALI Principles 59
      2.1.5 The CLIP Principles 62
      2.1.6 Obstacles to Implementation of Private International Law Solutions 64
         2.1.6.1 Foreign Patents in U.S. Courts 65
         2.1.6.2 Foreign Patents in German Courts 69
   2.2 Institutional Solutions to the Problem of Enforcement of Parallel Patents 72
   2.3 Obstacles to the Enforcement of Parallel Patents 76
3. Protecting an Invention outside the Protecting Country 81
   3.1 Inventions in the Means of Transportation 84
   3.2 Inventions in Transit and Border Measures 88
   3.3 Offers to Sell 98
   3.4 Inventions Assembled Abroad from Components from a Protecting Country 105
   3.5 Acts Abroad Contributing to Infringements in the Protecting Country 110
   3.6 Acts in Multiple Locations 116
   3.7 Limits on the Protection of an Invention outside the Protecting Country 121

4. Limits of Protection under the Law of the Protecting Country 127
   4.1 Foreign Parties before U.S. Courts—A Quantitative View of the Enforcement Problem 129
      4.1.1 Patent Cases Filed in 2004 and 2009 133
      4.1.2 Cases Involving Foreign Parties 135
      4.1.3 Cases Involving at Least One Foreign Defendant and Cases with Only Foreign Defendants 139
      4.1.4 Some Observations about the Data on the Involvement of Foreign Defendants in Patent Litigation in 2004 and 2009 146
   4.2 Injunctions 154
      4.2.1 Cross-Border Injunctions in U.S. Courts 156
      4.2.2 Cross-Border Injunctions in Europe 161
      4.2.3 Challenges to Enforcement of Injunctions Abroad 165
         4.2.3.1 Enforcement of an Injunction 166
         4.2.3.2 Enforcement of a Contempt Order 172
   4.3 Monetary Relief 173
      4.3.1 Punitive Damages 174
      4.3.2 Ongoing Royalties 176
   4.4 Additional Requirements of Recognition and Enforcement 178
   4.5 Obstacles to Enforcement Abroad 181

CONCLUSIONS 185
BIBLIOGRAPHY 193
TABLE OF CASES 215
INDEX 225