Dear Professor Kinoy:

Thank you very much for your interest in the Society of American Law Teachers (the new name was adopted at the AALS Convention in New Orleans) and your good suggestions with respect to coordination with the National Lawyer's Guild. I will pursue this with Jim Larsen.

Norman Dorsen sends you his best regards.

Sincerely,

Sylvia A. Law

Dear Professor Law,

I am enclosing my check for $25.00 for membership in the "National Association of Law Teachers", which I assume from your letter was in fact formed at the New Orleans meeting. I also note that since you do not intend to be a "rival of the AALS" you have "been in friendly communication with the President and Director of the AALS during the formation of plans for the new group". I note that the stated objectives of the new association overlap in many respects the objectives and activities of the National Lawyers Guild of which I am pleased and honored to be Vice-President. A number of other law teachers throughout the country are also members of the Guild. I would trust and expect that you will also be in friendly communication with the officers of the Guild during the formation of plans for this new group.

Unfortunately, I myself will be on medical leave this semester, but I am sure that discussions with Jim Larson, the President of the Guild, would be fruitful and I will be back at Rutgers in the fall. My very best to Norm Dorsen and all your other friends on your organizing committee.
