Welcome to a Night on the Town with PILA

Thank you so much for joining us on this wonderful evening! We are thrilled that you are here to celebrate a night of community, camaraderie, and giving back. All proceeds we raise from tonight's auction will go to provide grants to students who commit to spending their summer in unfunded or low-paying positions that address the unmet legal needs of people in Nevada and around the world.

The goal of the Public Interest Law Grant Program is to encourage and enable students to work in public interest by subsidizing the students' cost of forgoing other employment. PILA's auction is the primary source of funding for students who elect to meet the need for legal services in underserved communities, and since our first auction in 1999, your generosity has helped us raise more than $100,000 to finance grants for Boyd students working in these areas.

Whether helping children in foster care in Las Vegas, assisting low-income individuals in Reno, or even working toward improving conditions in rural India, our students have made an incredible impact on the communities they serve. None of this would be possible without your continued generosity, and we thank you for your support.

In addition to raising funds for a great cause, the Auction provides a valuable opportunity for law students and members of the legal community to mingle and celebrate public interest. We would like to express our gratitude to everyone who contributed to this event. Without the support of our school administration, PILA auction committee members, PILA executive board, professors, donors, sponsors, and auction guests, this event would not be possible. Thank you for joining us this evening, and please enjoy the event!

Silver Staircase Honoree: Michael L. Douglas

Justice Michael Douglas has dedicated much of his career to public service and has continued to support the goals of public interest and service during his tenure on the Nevada Supreme Court.

Justice Douglas began his Nevada legal career as an attorney with Nevada Legal Services, a non-profit organization that provides free legal assistance to low-income individuals. He continued his public service as a Deputy District Attorney in the Clark County District

Attorney's Office, where he practiced in the Civil Division until 1996 when he was appointed to the Eighth Judicial District Court bench.

On the District Court, he served as Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial District Court and as a Business Court Judge; he also served on District Court Committees and Supreme Court Commissions. At the Supreme Court, Justice Douglas currently co-chairs the Nevada Supreme Court Bench-Bar Committee, the Nevada Supreme Court Specialty Court Funding Committee, the Nevada Supreme Court Access to Justice Commission and Language Access in the Courts. Justice Douglas served as Chief Justice in 2011.

A graduate of California State College, Long Beach, in 1971 and the University of California Hastings College of the Law in 1974, Justice Douglas has been a member of the Judicial Council of the State of Nevada and Vice President of the Nevada District Judges Association. He is a past president of the Nevada American Inns of Court. He has also been active with the State Bar of Nevada, Nevada Law Foundation, National Bar Association, Consumer Credit Counseling Service, We the People civics program, and groups fighting domestic violence.

Justice Douglas is also well known to students, not only because he regularly accepts Boyd students as judicial externs, but also because of his willingness to help wherever possible. He was the keynote speaker for the 2012 Public Interest Film Festival held at the university. He also attended last year's Public Interest Mixer during Celebrate Pro Bono Week, meeting and speaking with the many students in attendance. It is a great honor and privilege to have a prominent member of our state's highest court be so accessible.

Thank you Justice Douglas, for all that you have done and continue to do!

We Thank Justice Michael Douglas For His Exceptional Commitment to Public Service.
