A Proclamation by the Governor

Whereas, the William S. Boyd School of Law at UNLV was established by the Legislature in June, 1997 and opened its door to students in August of 1998; and

Whereas, since its inception the William S. Boyd School of Law at UNLV has had wonderful support from the public, the UNLV administration, the Board of Regents, the Legislature, the Governor, the Judiciary, the legal profession, the Bar and private donors; and

Whereas, since its inception in 1998, the William S. Boyd School of Law has an enrollment of 400 students, and grown to 26 dedicated faculty members with a projected enrollment of 500 students and an anticipated faculty of 33; and

Whereas, the Williams S. Boyd School of Law has established a curriculum which combines the best of traditional legal education with an emphasis on community service and professionalism; and

Whereas, the outstanding students in the charter class took a risk in enrolling at a new, unaccredited law school and have been instrumental in building the student government, forming student organizations, and establishing a new law journal, all of which demonstrated their dedication to the dream of having an outstanding law school in Southern Nevada; and

Whereas, the students of the William S. Boyd School of Law charter class showed tremendous foresight and courage by enrolling in the first class of a new law school and paved the way for countless other students to follow; and

Whereas, May 11, 2001, will mark an historic day with the graduation of this first class of the William S. Boyd School of Law; and

Whereas, the State of Nevada wishes to congratulate the students of the charter class for their determination, dedication and perseverance, and commemorate the graduation of the first graduates of the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law;

Now, Therefore, I, Kenny C. Guinn, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby proclaim May 11, 2001, as a day in honor of

The Charter Class of the William S. Boyd School of Law UNLV

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 11th day of May, 2001
