

ROAD SCHOLARS

JUNE 2011

- June 1-2 Elizabeth MacDowell will present a work in progress at the Emerging Family Law Scholars and Teachers Conference in San Francisco, CA. The program is hosted by the University of California, Hastings College of Law.
- June 1-5 Rachel Anderson, Ann Cammett, Elizabeth MacDowell, Ann McGinley, and Keith Rowley will attend the Annual Meeting of the Law and Society Association in San Francisco, CA. Anderson will present a paper entitled, "Global Law Commission: Institutionalizing Human Rights Regulation of Transnational Corporations" as part of a panel, "After the Deluge? Employing Alternative Paradigms in Business Law." Cammett and MacDowell will co-present as part of a roundtable, "Structural Inequality and Violence Against Women." McGinley will present a paper entitled, "Reasonable Men," as part of the panel, "Learnings from History, Theory and Practice Regarding Labor and Employment Law." Rowley will present "Contracts Illustrated: Using Popular Culture to Teach Contract Law," and will also serve as Chair and Discussant of another panel and a roundtable.
- June 1-5 Nancy Rapoport has been invited to address the Law School Admission Council Annual Meeting in Los Angeles on the topic of dealing with difficult people.
- June 1-8 Chris Blakesley will be attending two meetings in Paris, France. He will participate in the Annual Meeting of the Board of Editors of the Revue Internationale de Droit Pénal, in his capacity as editor, chroniqueur and correcteur. He also will attend the Annual Meeting of l'Association Internationale de Droit Pénal.
- June 7-9 Mary LaFrance will attend the First Annual Entertainment Law Symposium in Nashville, TN. The Symposium is sponsored by the ABA Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries.
- June 8-11 Sylvia Lazos will serve as keynote speaker at the Cambio De Colores Conference in Kansas City, MO. Professor Lazos worked to create this annual conference that brings together researchers, community workers, and university extension faculty to discuss how to integrate minority communities.
- June 8-11 Stacey Tovino will participate on a panel addressing "Health Care Reform" as part of the 34th Annual Health Law professors Conference, sponsored by the American Society for Law, Medicine & Ethics at Loyola University Chicago School of Law, in Chicago, IL.
- June 11 Kate Kruse will present a report, in her capacity as Secretary of the Clinical Legal Education Association, at the Council Meeting for the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admission to the Bar. The meeting will be held in Salt Lake City, UT.

- June 11-12 Ngai Pindell has been invited to present a report to the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admission to the Bar, in Salt Lake City, UT. He will be speaking in his capacity as co-President-Elect of the Society of American Law Teachers.
- June 11-14 Rebecca Scharf will attend the AALS Mid-Year Conference on the Future of the Law School Curriculum, which will convene in Seattle, WA.
- June 12 Kate Kruse will speak at the CLEA New Clinician's Conference on the topic of "Scholarship Success: Fitting It In and Writing It Well," held in Seattle, WA. This day-long event introduces new clinicians to the legal academy.
- June 12-16 Mary Berkheiser, Ann Cammett, Marty Geer, Kate Kruse, Elizabeth MacDowell, and Fatma Marouf will attend the AALS Midyear Conference on Curriculum and Clinical Legal Education in Seattle, WA. Berkheiser will serve as a working group leader. Cammett will present "A Matrix for Community Lawyering: Site, Practice and Population," as part of a workshop. Geer and Marouf will co-present a poster on Boyd's winter session program in India, which incorporated an experiential practicum on International and Comparative Human Rights.
- June 17 Kate Kruse will speak about the AALS Clinical Section Task Force findings at a meeting of the AALS Clinic Director's Conference, held in Seattle, WA.
- June 12-17 Stacey Tovino will teach a course in Bioethics at Hamline University School of Law's Summer Health Law Institute, in St. Paul, MN. The topics will include assisted reproductive technologies, organ donation, human subjects research, patient confidentiality and privacy, and advances in neuroscience.
- June 16-19 Rachel Anderson and Ann Cammett will participate in the Lutie A. Lytle Black Women Law Faculty Writing Workshop at the Texas Southern University Thurgood Marshall School of Law in Houston, TX. In addition to presenting her paper, "Global Law Commission: Institutionalizing Human Rights Regulation of Transnational Corporations," Anderson will give talks on strategies for securing placement and also a brief history of the Workshop. Cammett will present her paper, "The Rebirth of Debtors' Prison: What Johnson v. Bredenson Illustrates About Reenfranchisement and Prisoner Debt."
- June 20-22 Rachel Anderson and Elizabeth MacDowell will attend the AALS Workshop on Women Rethinking Equality in Washington, D.C. Anderson will present her paper, "Global Law Commission: Institutionalizing Human Rights Regulation of Transnational Corporations," and MacDowell will present her paper, "Functional Fragmentation: Court Pluralism, Domestic Violence, and Justice System Reform."
- June 20-23 Ray Patterson will be attending a conference on "Teaching Law School ADR Classes," presented by the Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine University in Malibu, CA.

June 20-30

Marketa Trimble will travel to the Max Planck Institute for Intellectual Property, Competition and Tax Law in Munich, Germany to conduct research on trademarks that have been held to be scandalous and immoral.

June 24-26

Peter Bayer, Linda Edwards, George Mader, Terry Pollman, and Rebecca Scharf will attend the 2011 Association of Legal Writing Directors Conference, which will convene at the McGeorge School of Law of the University of the Pacific in Sacramento, CA. Bayer, Mader and Scharf will talk on the subject of "To Lead or Not to Lead: The Benefits and Challenges of Being Involved in Law School and University Faculty Governance." Edwards will lead a conference session on ABA Accreditation Site Visits, the preparation of the Self Study, and the governing ABA Standards. Pollman, a past President of the organization, will lead a breakout session on the ABA Standards Review Committee's proposed changes to the Standards.