

ROAD SCHOLARS

NOVEMBER 2011

- Nov. 1-2 Ngai Pindell has been selected to serve on an ABA Site Visit Team. He will travel to Tucson, Arizona with the Team to review the University of Arizona College of Law.
- Nov. 2-8 Marketa Trimble will attend the Presentation of the Principles for Conflict of Laws in Intellectual Property that is being convened by the European Max Planck Group on Conflict of Laws in Intellectual Property. The conference is being held in Berlin, Germany.
- Nov. 3-4 Jeanne Price will participate in the Desert States Law Library Consortium. This year, the meeting will be held at Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona and will involve the directors of law libraries in the region.
- Nov. 4-6 Nancy Rapoport has been invited to participate in a conference on the intersection of white collar crime and bankruptcy law. The event is hosted by Golden Gate University's law school in San Francisco, California.
- Nov. 10-12 Kate Kruse and Ngai Pindell will speak at the ABA Standards Review Committee Meeting, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois. Kruse will speak on behalf of the Clinical Legal Education Association, and Pindell will speak in his capacity as incoming President of the Society for American Law Teachers. The Committee is considering comprehensive changes to the standards for accrediting law schools.
- Nov. 10-12 Jeff Stempel has been invited to participate in the University Kansas Law School's Symposium on the Federal Arbitration Act. He will travel to Lawrenceville, Kansas to present his paper, "Crazy, Stupid Love: Arbitral Infatuation in Derogation of Sound Jurisprudence."
- Nov. 10-13 Keith Rowley was invited to present "The CISG is Pro-Buyer and Pro-Seller" as part of a conference at the University of Florida on "The Global Challenges of International Sales Law." The papers will be published in a book of essays by Cambridge University Press.
- Nov. 13-14 Bret Birdsong will travel to Denver, Colorado in his capacity as Co-Chair of the Public Lands section to participate in the Meeting of the Planning Chairs who are working to develop the conference program for the 58th Annual Institute of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation. The Institute is the largest natural resources law conference in the nation.
- Nov. 14-15 Addie Rolnick is one of a select group of experts to be invited to speak at an Indian juvenile justice meeting convened by the Association on American Indian Affairs and the National Indian Child Welfare Association in Denver, Colorado. She will address the salient issues facing the disproportionate number of Native American youth who are detained.

Nov. 16-17

Nancy Rapoport has been invited to present her talk on the portrayal of lawyers in pop culture at a meeting of the Austin Bar Association in Austin, Texas. She will be on a panel with judges, and will discuss the portrayal of legal ethics in film.

Nov. 16-18

Ann McGinley has been invited to participate in a conference at the University of Florida Levin College of Law that will honor the work of Professor Nancy Dowd in masculinities research. She will present her paper, "Reasonable Men?" which examines the theoretical underpinnings of hostile work environment law through the lens of masculinities research.

Nov. 19-
Dec. 10

Jay Mootz has been appointed under the University of Cagliari Visiting Professor Program to lecture for three weeks in Cagliari, Sardinia. He will teach lessons in an undergraduate seminar, provide a short course on his book, "Rhetorical Knowledge in Legal Practice and Critical Legal Theory," and also deliver lectures to Ph.D. students. While at the University, he also will finalize an Agreement of Cooperation designed to facilitate faculty exchanges between the institutions.