

WILLIAM S. BOYD
SCHOOL OF LAW

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW

FILM FESTIVAL

SEPT. 19-20, 2013

BOYD SCHOOL OF LAW
MARJORIE BARRICK MUSEUM

FEATURING

Award-winning filmmaker
Melissa Young, civil rights leader Ruby Duncan,
Geoconda Arguello-Kline
(Culinary Union Local 226),
Ann Cammett (CUNY School of Law), Michael
Ginsburg (PLAN), Kimi Lee (Movement Strategies), an evening of film shorts, and the following feature-length
films:

Shift Change

Made in L.A.

We're Not Broke

ECONOMIC ~~IN~~JUSTICE

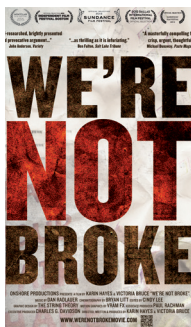

Global, National & Local Challenges & Opportunities

RSVP AT LAW.UNLV.EDU/PUBLICINTERESTFILMFESTIVAL2013

UNLV | WILLIAM S. BOYD
SCHOOL OF LAW

WILLIAM S. BOYD
SCHOOL OF LAW

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW FILM FESTIVAL

SEPT. 19-20, 2013
BOYD SCHOOL OF LAW
MARJORIE BARRICK MUSEUM

For complete schedule and to RSVP: law.unlv.edu/PublicInterestFilmFestival2013

Join the conversation on facebook.com/UNLVLaw/events

Thursday, Sept. 19 (Marjorie Barrick Museum)

- 5:45 p.m. Reception
- 6:30 p.m. Short films: Argentina Turning Around; Locusts; "I Am Downtown" Series: The Human Experience; Co Working
- 7:00 p.m. Discussion and Q&A featuring filmmakers Melissa Young, Freeman White III, and William J. Swaney

Friday, Sept. 20 (Boyd School of Law)

- 9:30 a.m. Welcoming remarks
- 10:00 a.m. Shift Change
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch and roundtable discussion of "Organizing for Economic Justice"
- 1:45 p.m. Made in L.A.
- 3:45 p.m. We're Not Broke
- 5:15 p.m. Inaugural Public Interest Film Festival Humanitarian Award, honoring civil rights leader Ruby Duncan

All events are free and open to the public.